FACTORS ENABLING & CONSTRAINING WOMEN’S INFLUENCE IN PEACE PROCESSES

- Attitudes surrounding gender roles
- Existence of previous gender provisions
- Presence of strong women’s groups
- Preparedness of women
- Decision-making procedures
- Public buy-in
- International networks of women
- Early involvement of women in the process
- Heterogeneity of women’s identities
- Funding
- Support structures
- Elite resistance or support
- Attitude of the mediator
- Advocacy strategies
- Mass action
- Coalition building
- Role of international actors
- Selection procedures